NATIONALITIES COMMITTEE OUTLINES SPRING ACTIVITIES -- Hua-ch'iao Jib-pao,
11 Feb 50

Pei-p'ing (NCNA) -- The Nationalities Committee of the People's Republic of China announced that its activities, during the spring of 1950, will be focused mainly on study of the problems of the minority groups in China so that measures may be adopted to establish closer ties between these groups and the government.

It was also announced that plans are now being made to set up translation units to translate government edicts, notices, etc., into other languages, such as Tibetan, Mongolian, Uighur, etc., to enable all minority groups to fully understand the various measures and regulations being instituted by the government.
